

Sebastien Le Goff wins Sommelier of Year

Vancouver, BC (March 4, 2006) – The Vancouver Playhouse International Wine Festival is pleased to announce that Sebastien Le Goff, restaurant director and sommelier at CinCin Ristorante & Bar in Vancouver, has won the BCRFA/ISG Sommelier of the Year Award. Le Goff receives a Trade Super Pass, valued at $290, to the 2007 festival.

The award was presented Thursday at the Wines of France-sponsored "Partners in Wine: A Lunch with Alsace and Rhône," one of 52 events at the 28th annual Playhouse Winefest. The seven-day festival wraps on Sunday.

Past recipients of the award, in descending order, Tom Doughty, Mark Taylor, Barb Philip, Peter Bodnar, Mark Davidson and Brent Hayman.

The Sommelier of the Year award is sponsored by B. C. Restaurant and Foodservices Association and the International Sommelier Guild of Canada

The Vancouver Playhouse International Wine Festival is a fundraiser for the Playhouse Theatre Company and is sponsored by Chubb Insurance Company of Canada.

Media contact Betty Verkuil – 604-988-9502 (604-647-7435 through March 4) media@playhousewinefest.com
